

Zacery A Ciaramella

November 27, 1994 - December 20, 2020

Comments

“

TINA PADGETT - March 11 at 01:50 PM

“

Zac was like a son to me. Very polite and willing to help. He enjoyed being around my family especially my grandson, he would play with him all the time. He loved my home cooked meals and baked good. He will be missed.

Rebecca Franssen - December 31, 2020 at 11:02 PM

“

Zac, you are loved and missed by so many friends and family. My heart hurts that I will never get one of your amazing hugs again or see your beautiful smile. I keep checking my FB to see if you are on so we can visit. I will cherish my memories and our conversations. Love you always, Aunt Heather

Heather DeRoberts - December 31, 2020 at 04:01 PM

“

Remembering my dear Nephew , that I loved very much. He was my little sister Cheryl's Grandson.

Joyce Perkins - December 31, 2020 at 03:51 PM

“

Zac, brother, I love you and I miss you so much. You mean the world to me and that'll never change.

Morgan Ciaramella - December 31, 2020 at 03:41 PM

“ Zac had a heart of gold and always cared so much about helping others. He had an upbeat personality and a ready smile for all. Zac also loved animals and wanted to get a rescue cat eventually. RIP my friend. Michelle J - Grand Island

Michelle - December 31, 2020 at 03:20 PM

“ I first met Zac when he was an inpatient here at the VA. He had stopped me and asked about buying stamps to send letters. I, being the mail clerk, shared the process with him and we became friends. He had an easy smile and a bright light in his eyes. Then he started as an Intern with the IT department which is next door to the mailroom so I saw him on a more regular basis. He had a great sense of humor as he laughed at all my corny jokes. Sometimes I would want to just hug the kid, being a mother of 4 I could tell somethings weighed heavy on him. But policy being policy I couldn't and I couldn't ask. So I'd talk with him awhile and he'd brighten up. He was a kind soul and a bright star. I will miss our banter in the hallway or the smile he would flash in a simple greeting. I am sorry for your loss and I am sending prayers of comfort and strength at this most difficult time. He would want you to remember him with a smile. I will. Colleen Bishop

Colleen Bishop - December 31, 2020 at 03:03 PM

“ You made me laugh. Help me work on my car and my dad was teaching you to be a mechanic. My dad had taught you how to fish and you loved to go fishing. In our spare time together we played board games. Had our first Holiday (thanksgiving) together.

Jacklyn Franssen - December 31, 2020 at 02:56 PM

“ Zac was such a nice sweet guy. He was always so quiet but was always willing to do something if you asked him. He was a very hard worker and would work circles around his co-workers that he worked closely with. I am glad I had the pleasure of knowing him, He will be missed.

Connie Laux - December 31, 2020 at 01:49 PM

“ Zac was a bright light to everyone who knew him. You couldn't help but be lifted up by his smile and child-like enthusiasm. I loved his hugs and was counting the days until we could safely hug again and in the mean time we had "air-hugs" which he readily gave anytime he saw you. He is missed greatly by the many lives he touched during the short time he was with us. We are truly blessed to have gotten to know him.

Kris - December 31, 2020 at 01:00 PM

“ To Zac's family.... I just started at the VHA in April and Zac was the one to help set up a PC and get me on the network. Then about nine months later I changed roles and was being changed to a laptop and once again Zac popped in our door! I said hi and nice to see him here again. I was disheartened to be told of his passing. I have thought of you, and prayed for him and your family. I really appreciate you giving us this opportunity to communicate that back to you. It's a small piece of healing closure for me and I hope for you hearing this. BenR

Ben Redman - December 31, 2020 at 11:40 AM

“ Zac was a very personable young man. When he started working with the VA- IT staff, he was always very polite and energetic. You could tell he loved his job. Although I didn't know Zac beyond work, the word of his loss saddened me greatly. May God give his loved ones and friends consolation and peace. Sorry for your loss.

Stephanie Potter - December 31, 2020 at 11:13 AM

“ Zac I will always keep you in my heart. I loved how much you loved life. How happy you were and what a dork you were. We had a tough time but I hope you knew that I loved you so very much and I just wanted you to be happy. I hope I made you happy because you deserved the world. You are so special I will never forget you. I won't let you down love.

Paola Colchado - December 30, 2020 at 07:34 PM

“ I miss you so much brother. Words just can't describe it.

Ashly Amason - December 30, 2020 at 07:20 PM

“ i just found out . i am so sorry for his family and friends . zac lived with us when he was little . he was such a sweet kid and we loved him and hiss sister very much. i told to not mis behave at school or i would have to come to school and sit with him thinking it would embarass him nope well that back fired. lol i spent alot of time at school not because he was bad though . he was a good kid we have never forgotten those two . we will miss him terribly. RIP ZAC FLY HIGH .LOVE YOU

TINA PADGETT - February 21, 2020 at 07:28 PM

“ It tears me up that a young man like you has left from this world, Count Zacula. You were my brother in arms, my roommate, my exercise partner, my video game pal, and my friend. I miss you more than I could ever express. It hurts me in a way that no physically inflicted pain ever could do. I'm glad that you are in a better place, my friend, but down here on Earth, it still hurts. I'll never forget your hugs, little bro. Love you. --Old Andy.

Andy Stager - January 11, 2020 at 12:43 PM

“ Zac I so miss seeing you at work. You always brought a smile to my face when you would wave your hands and say hi. I am going to miss you young man.

Jerri - January 05, 2020 at 08:39 AM

“ Zac is truly missed, there are not many people that Zac didn't make a memorable impression on, with his gentle sweet spirit. I had the pleasure of working with him at the VA and being apart of his recovery. I am almost 60 years of age and have been sober/clean for 25 year as of 12/22/21, I thought of him as son, We would go to Friday or Saturday night AA meeting and go out for supper after the meets at The Chicken Coop , Applebee's. On Federal Holidays we would go to noon mtgs and ate at Sutter Deli with friends. Sometimes he would be so wound up and I would tell him to just relax and breathe everything is already all right that he could believe it on my faith and experience until he could believe it on his own faith. He and Martin helped move a book case in my home in Fall. He was just in the office a couple of 2wks ago and I was telling him that I had got my upstairs finish and he needed to come over and check it out. He said, he would really like that. I love him to the moon and back! He was a one of a kind wonderful person!! Sending blessing and love to his family and friends, God bless you Zac! Love , Kay Puckett

Kay Puckett - January 04, 2020 at 12:40 PM

“ I only met Zac in passing. He was quiet but I introduced myself to him during screening at the VA. Every day afterwards, he would say hi, we talked about him going to college, and he was overall a good man! Reminded me of my own son. He will be missed.

Coral Selden - January 04, 2020 at 08:26 AM

“ I remember his first day on forth floor, He was all smiles and eager to learn. The longer he was there the more he came to care for the everyone around him. He was always a good listener and ready for a hug when you needed on or he needed one. I will miss him a lot. So sad to see him go so soon. I Love You Zac

Michael Roe - January 03, 2020 at 01:46 PM

“ I was sitting here trying to write something special for Zac. I liked Zac smiles ,laughter and his bounce when he walked. When we were making mask this summer for the veterans he found a mask that matched his shirt that he was wearing that day. Makes me smile thinking of him on that day. He had this big grin underneath that mask. I have trouble with his passing away so young. Zac the memory of you will never leave us and will live long in our hearts. Goodbye IT - go to guy

Lisa Whitaker - January 03, 2020 at 01:24 PM

“ Ohh zac, the memories that I share of us growing up. I will forever cherish these close to my heart. My heart hurts and I hate that we haven't been close the last few years. You're always in my heart, ill see you on the other side.

Michelle Ooten-Ciaramella - January 01, 2020 at 10:44 PM

“ Thank You for your service to our country Zac. No words to describe how much we are going to miss your smile, your hugs, your energy, your zest, your knowledge, you were such an amazing young Man. A brilliant young Man, there isn't anything he didn't know how to fix. Zac was living and working in Grand Island at the time of his death. We had a beautiful memorial for him in Grand Island at the VA. We are going to miss you so much. Your in peace now Zac.

Lynda - January 01, 2020 at 01:41 PM

“ I am grateful to have experienced so much with you Zac. I will forever cherish each and every interaction we had together. You are so kind, brave, quirky, and taught me so much. I will always look back and remember playing rugby, you being my first boyfriend, writing letters and you helping me babysit my brothers. I love you Zacery Allen.

Eryn Berry - January 01, 2020 at 12:47 AM